

TERRAZAS IS GIVEN UNTIL SUNDAY

Villa Extends Time to Pay Ransom.

400 REBELS DIE IN BATTLE

700 Federal Troops Rout 3,000 of Enemy Between Conojos and Escalon—Rebel Leaders Charged With Two Murders.

El Paso, Tex., March 7.—An extension to Sunday night of the period designated by Gen. "Pancho" Villa as the time in which either $250,000 gold must be paid into the constitutional treasury or Luis Terrazas II, who is a prisoner at Chihuahua, will be sent to the battle line at Terrenas, was made by the constitutionalists. It is said Terrazas' family asked for more time to try to raise the ransom. So far General Terrazas has been unable to raise the sum. At every probable source the family has been unsuccessful and from its property in Mexico it has been unable to realize any money because of the confiscation of the vast estates by Villa.

400 Rebels Killed in Battle.

Mexico City, March 7.—Four hundred rebels were killed in the defeat of Gen. Toribio Ortega's rebel army in a battle with federalists between Conojos and Escalon, according to dispatches received here. The rebel army, numbering more than 3,000, have been moving toward Terrenas without interruption until General Pano, with a federal army of 700 men, engaged them.

Rebel Leaders Charged With Murder. Mexico City, March 7.—A government warrant charging Gen. Francisco Villa with murder and Gen. Venustiano Carranza with being an accessory was drawn up by the ministry of justice and immediately signed by President Huerta. The warrant holds both the constitutional leaders responsible for the death of William S. Benton, the wealthy British rancher executed at Juarez.

The signing of the warrant put both men in the position of being fugitives from justice and either can be shot down by government soldiers or any government officer upon refusal to surrender.

"Both Carranza and Villa are in the bandit class now," said President Huerta after he had the warrant issued. "The Mexican government intends to protect foreigners. Benton's execution was a coldblooded murder and his slayers are going to be punished."

Benton Quits Must Satisfy U. S. Washington, March 7.—Gen. Venustiano Carranza, provisional president of the Mexican constitutionalists, must make an investigation of the death of William S. Benton that is satisfactory to the United States before any compensation will be paid by the American government in behalf of Great Britain.

This fact was learned on high authority. Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, who is now at El Paso to conduct an investigation, will notify Carranza that the United States will tolerate no "whitewash" of General Villa and his methods. This warning will, of course, be "unofficial" in the ordinary meaning of the word, because President Wilson has no intention of recognizing the constitutional government, but it will have all the backing of the American government.

HITS AT THE TARIFF

LOUISIANA SEEKS U. S. COURT AID TO COLLECT SUGAR DUTY.

Gulf State Asks Injunction to Prevent Assessing the 60 Per Cent Duty.

Washington, March 5.—Louisiana on Tuesday asked leave of the supreme court of the United States to file a suit for injunction against Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamilton to prevent them from assessing a duty of only 60 per cent of the Dingley tariff rate on sugar imported from Cuba and ordering them to collect a duty of 80 per cent of such duty on Cuban sugar.

The suit aimed at the validity of the free sugar section of the Underwood tariff law. The court took the request under advisement. Former Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas is counsel for the state, which is acting in the interest of the sugar cane growers.

Under the Cuban reciprocity treaty, Cuban sugar received a 20 per cent preferential under the Dingley rates. Under the Underwood tariff law, a reduction of 25 per cent in the rates assessed upon all sugar was made. Louisiana claims that the law making the Cuban reciprocity treaty effective never has been repealed and that the McAdoo calculations are unlawful.

The treasury now is collecting upon Cuban sugar a duty of 1.01 cents per pound, whereas Louisiana claims the lawful duty should be 1.25 cents per pound.

JOHN B. MOORE QUILTS

COUNSELOR OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT AT WASHINGTON QUILTS HIS POST.

REPORTS OF FRICTION HEARD

Disagreements With Higher Officials Is Believed to Have Led to the Action—Had Understanding With President Wilson.

Washington, March 6.—John Bassett Moore, counselor of the state department, who ranks as acting secretary, resigned on Wednesday and his resignation has been accepted by President Wilson. Simultaneously the state department under Secretary of State Bryan and that the American government would not be asked to resort to force as a result of that tragedy at Juarez was the chief factor in the Mexican situation and served to relieve the tension.

In addition to saying that Great Britain would not ask the United States to use force to avenge the execution of the British subject, Sir Edward Grey said that the United States should be taken up by the British government and not by Washington authorities.

Washington, March 6.—Great Britain's pronouncement through Sir Edward Grey that the United States was in no way responsible for the execution of William S. Benton and that the American government would not be asked to resort to force as a result of that tragedy at Juarez was the chief factor in the Mexican situation and served to relieve the tension.

His reasons for taking this action were not made public when the resignation was announced. It is believed, however, that he had been greatly dissatisfied with the management of the state department under Secretary of State Bryan and that he has frequently expressed his dissatisfaction to President Wilson.

When he assumed office, Mr. Moore promised that he would remain until the first year of the administration had been concluded, and now that that time has passed, Mr. Moore, it is said, feels that it is no longer incumbent on him to stay in office. It is expected that President Wilson will make a statement regarding the resignation in a short time.

Mr. Moore would make no comment upon his resignation or would he give any reason for his action. "I prefer to let any statement in this matter come directly from the president," said Mr. Moore. "I will remain in Washington for the time being, but probably will return to New York before long. I have not accepted any specific position, but I intend to continue my life work, the codification of all international laws."

The sheriff, with Harry Josephson, clerk of the board of safety and other city hall attaches, had been hidden in an adjoining room by the detectives. All witnessed and made notes of the alleged transaction. The bribe is alleged to have been paid by Sullivan with the understanding that the "blind tiger" cases, which were to come up in the morning in the city court and in which he is defendant, would be dismissed. It was said that no change had been made in Carranza's stand that the death of Benton should be taken up by the British government and not by Washington authorities.

Benton and that the American government would not be asked to resort to force as a result of that tragedy at Juarez was the chief factor in the Mexican situation and served to relieve the tension.

TO AMEND CANAL ACT

MEASURE IN SENATE TO REPEAL CLAUSE EXEMPTING AMERICAN SHIPPING.

SMITH ATTACKS PRESIDENT

Senator Criticizes Wilson Because of His Attitude on Canal Tolls in View of Democratic Platform—Other Comments on Message.

Washington, March 7.—On Thursday after President Wilson had called upon congress to act, Senator Chilton of West Virginia introduced a bill to amend the Panama canal act and permit the repeal of the clause exempting American coastwise shipping from the payment of tolls. The text of the provision reads:

"The president notwithstanding anything herein contained is hereby authorized and empowered by proclamation to make, suspend, alter, change, or abolish any tolls contained or provided for by this act, and may prescribe tolls to be charged in any case in which tolls are prohibited herein."

Comment upon the president's message among members of the house was widely divergent. Representative Floyd D. Arkansas of the judiciary committee, said:

"I absolutely approve of the sentiment expressed by President Wilson. We made a great mistake in ever providing for free tolls."

Representative Doremus of Michigan, chairman of the Democratic congressional campaign committee, said:

"The president has not changed my mind a bit. I have been for free tolls all along and will continue the fight against any repeal."

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican, declared:

"I have taken the same position on canal tolls as the president now so belatedly takes, but I fear that it is not so much the repeal of tolls as the meaning of the language of the treaty that has convinced the president as the fact that to recover from the mistake in politics which he has made as to Mexico he is willing to conform to a policy in Panama approved by British statesmanship."

Representative Kahn of California, Republican, said:

"One thing appears to me evident: That is that we are called upon to retrieve the mistake of the administration in its dealings in Mexico where British interests have been seriously affected by sacrificing in Panama another interest of vital consequence to our people."

In the senate Senator William Alden Smith made an attack on President Wilson's attitude toward the canal tolls in view of the Democratic platform declaration.

CIVIL WAR RENDS BRAZIL

Capital and Two Other Cities Are Under Martial Law; Editors Were Arrested.

Rio de Janeiro, March 7.—A state of siege has been proclaimed in this capital and there have been many arrests. It is believed the cause of the agitation in military quarters is connected with the insurrection in Ceara. The governor of Ceara, a committee of women of Ceara and the officers of the garrison telegraphed to the military club a request that it intercede with the president to obtain protection against the rebels. The president also received many similar petitions. Many families are leaving Fortaleza. Edwin W. Morgan, United States ambassador, returned to this city and was welcomed by a representative of Dr. Lauro Muller, minister of foreign affairs.

The government declared martial law also at Niteroy and Petropolis. Managing editors of three of the principal newspapers were arrested. Gen. Mondee de Moraes, two colonels and several other officers of the army also were made prisoners. A strict censorship was established by the government on telegraphic communication.

MILLIONS TO BE UNCOVERED

BLIGHT SCRATCHING OF SURFACE SAMPLES STUPENDOUS SECRET STOREHOUSES.

PERSONAL PROPERTY PROBE

Prosecutor Turner and Civil Service Board Clash Over Investigation into Charges of Political Assessment and Injunction Is Granted, Giving Grand Jury Right of Way.

(By Denny Dunovan.) Columbus, O.—"A total of $3,153,362 of personal property that never before was placed upon the tax duplicate has been uncovered by deputy tax assessors after a slight scratching of the surface covering the storehouses where millions of intangible property have been hidden for years from the prying eyes of the property listers," a statement issued here by the state tax commission recites. "Deputy tax assessors in charge of the work in the different counties have reported that 10,255 individual returns of personal property blanks total $12,792,003," the statement concludes.

Clash Over Investigation. On application of Prosecutor Turner an injunction was issued by Common Pleas Judge Dillon restraining the state civil service commission from conducting an investigation as to alleged violations of the civil service law. While the injunction is only temporary, representations of Mr. Turner asserted that it will prevent any steps by the civil service commission and that the grand jury probably will finish the investigation which he has set on foot before the courts finally settle the question of whether the injunction shall be made permanent.

When the civil service commission convened Mr. Turner failed to respond to the summons to be present and offer testimony. It was said that the next step of the commission would be to ask the courts to compel him to appear before the commission. It was while the commission was waiting to see whether Mr. Turner would make good his assertions that he would not respond to the summons of the commission that Turner applied for the injunction.

No Malfeasance Proven.

Unless Civil Auditor R. S. Sweet, of Bowling Green, can present evidence to Secretary of State Charles H. Graves tending to show moral turpitude on the part of the members of the Wood county board of elections, his petition for their dismissal will likely be ignored. This was the position taken by Mr. Graves after an informal hearing before him. The charges of malfeasance, malfeasance and misconduct grew out of the action of the board in denying to the Citizen's ticket a place on the ballot in the municipal election in Bowling Green in the November election. The whole matter grows out of personal bitterness in the politics of Wood county, where rival factions are at each other's throats. No wilful intent to violate the law has been shown.

Life-Term Dies After Operation.

George Gump, 21 years old, died in the hospital of the Ohio penitentiary, only a few minutes after he had been carried from the operating room, where the prison physician, with several assistants, performed an operation in the endeavor to remove a bullet from the man's brain. Gump was received at the penitentiary October 24, 1911, to serve a life sentence for the murder of his wife, in Trumbull county. After Gump had shot his wife to death he turned the revolver on himself, sending a bullet into the back of his head, which penetrated the brain and lodged in the vicinity of his forehead. He lay at the point of death for many weeks, but ultimately recovered and was found guilty of a second-degree murder.

Changes in Medical Corps.

General orders, issued by Adjutant General George H. Wood, through Lieutenant Colonel Joseph A. Howard, of Cincinnati, Chief Surgeon of the Ohio National Guard, makes such changes in the medical department of the guard as will make it conform to a recent act of Congress ordering all national guards of the various states to be organized on the same basis. The order divides the medical department, or sanitary troops of the O. N. G., into three divisions—the medical corps, the medical reserve corps and the hospital corps. Ohio is the first national guard organization to conform with the recent regular army requirement.

Coal Operators Uncertain.

While no definite statement has been made as to their plans, it is reported here that Ohio coal operators are uncertain as to the proposal of submitting the mine-run law, enacted at the special session of the general assembly, to a referendum vote. In lieu of a referendum it has been suggested that a test be made in the courts as to the law's validity. If such an action is brought it is hinted it is likely to be in the federal rather than in the state courts.

Valuable Weed Eradicator.

Probably no animal is so valuable as a weed eradicator as the sheep. They not only eat a large variety of weeds and grasses, but they masticate the stems and apply to the soil at the same time a quantity of manure, and the seeds are destroyed or digested, and do not sprout from the manure.

Shelter Is Essential.

A common error of the inexperienced feeder is failure to provide good shelter. Lambs cannot make good gains with wet feet nor soggy fleeces.

Sheep Dip Too Strong.

A successful sheep grower writes: "I have found that the great trouble with most sheep dips is they are made too strong and cause irritation of the flesh. For each ten sheep I use only one-fourth pound of sheepshead. This I boil in about 30 gallons of water and dip the sheep therein as soon as cool. I make an application once a week till the trouble is overcome."

Feeding Little Chicks.

The great secret in feeding little chicks is to feed a little and often.

OHIOAN HAS MADE GOOD

Woman Who Is Placed Under Arrest Unable to Recall Name.

STORY READS LIKE FICTION

Well Dressed and Apparently Highly Educated Woman Thinks, as Well as She Can Remember, That She Was Victim of Attempted Kidnapping.

Springfield.—Unable to remember her name, her home or the names of her father and mother, and believing that she was the victim of an attempt to kidnap her, a well dressed and apparently highly educated woman was placed in the county jail by Deputy Sheriff Foster Landaker.

Attention was directed to the woman when she was seen in a 5 and 10 cent store inquiring of various persons what her name was. Coroner Howard Austin was summoned while in the store and the sheriff's office was notified.

Recalls One Detail.

The only detail of her life which the woman can recall is that she has been in rescue work and has acted as a missionary, evidently in the slums. She said that she was the daughter of a Methodist minister, and that it was a large stone building. The efforts of the woman to recall her identity are pitiful. She asked the attaches at the jail not to think that she was "always this way."

As much of her story as she is able to recall reads like fiction. The woman remembers being either upon an electric or steam train. She recalls engaging in conversation with a woman who was in a seat in front of her.
